We only accept accredited institutions that are listed in the Higher Education Directory. For graduates of foreign colleges or universities we require an evaluation from a foreign credentialing agency verifying that coursework and/or degrees were completed through an institution that is equivalent to an accredited institution in the United States.

California requires that each candidate hold a bachelor's degree from a regionally accredited institution, not in education. The teacher preparation program must be accredited by the Commission on Teacher Credentialing—about 100 IHEs and 15 school districts/county offices of education offer Commission approved initial teacher preparation programs.
